FOREWORD

During these uncertain times, we may find it hard to look on the bright side of difficulties. However, we, the Senior class of '45, have tried to appear humorous by using the theme of a Circus throughout our school annual. We are leaving with many happy thoughts and memories of our Alma Mater, which we will cherish for the rest of our lives

Dedication

For their years of unfailing service and foresight in selecting and working with the Krabba Staff, we, the class of '45, are proud to dedicate our annual to
Miss Jane Saunders
and
Mr. Richard H. Gibson

CLASS HISTORY

In light of world history that has been made during the past four years, 1941-1945, the history of our class becomes more significant as our lives spent within the corridors of these walls of Hampton High School have become closely entwined with that of the world about us. We have had to keep tempo with a rapidly changing world under the strain of war and adverse circumstances, but we have achieved our goal. With its achievement comes a deep sense of appreciation for all we have accomplished in the face of these problems and for the opportunities afforded us in our land of the free.

From our ranks and files will go the soldiers and citizens of tomorrow, toward which goal we started out four years ago on a September morning of 1941. Everywhere there was an air of restlessness and expectancy enveloping us as we first started going from class to class.

We had scarcely become accustomed to high school life, when we found ourselves among the excited football fans watching our team successfully open their season with a victory of 32-0 over Craddock. Football season seemed to just fly by; for it was only a short while before we were in the gymnasium witnessing our first basketball game as students of H. H. S. Little did we realize that the athletic training in the bright September of '41 would soon serve a nation at war in its darkest hour of need with our fellow students not in football helmets but in helmets of steel.

After returning from the Christmas holidays, we became keenly aware of our examinations that were to be given soon. The word "exam" intimidated us for these were to be our first. The mental discipline required to complete this and our future examinations successfully will stand us in good stead in surmounting the many obstacles of everyday life as adult men and women. However, we survived them and soon we were struggling on to June where that exciting summer vacation was awaiting us.

School seemed altogether different when we returned the following fall for we were no longer meek freshmen, but the distinguished, if somewhat patronizing, sophomores. It was our turn to gaze upon the freshmen with a strange, new feeling of superiority. We were not aware at the opening football game that this would mark the beginning of our most successful football season since 1936. Each game was more exciting than the previous one until we saw our eleven rise to their greatest height of the season to smash out a decisive 32 to 0 victory over the Newport News Typhoons on Thanksgiving Day. This victory ended the gridiron season for 1942 and gave Hampton the well-deserved and undisputed title of State Champions.

After mid-term exams we were eagerly looking forward to Spring, along with which would come Easter and track season. The frequent track meets added to our enjoyment and it wasn't too long before that well-deserved summer vacation arrived.

The thought of being Juniors made us anxious to return once again to H. H. S. We really felt as if we were a part of the school life now for some of the members of our class were on the football squad and basketball team, some were starring in the plays given by the Dramatics Club, some were being elected into office, and many were taking an active part in the various organizations of the school.

The membership of our class was greatly enlarged by the arrival of the newcomers from Phoebus and George Wythe Junior High Schools.

Soon after returning from the Christmas holidays we organized our Junior class and elected the following officers: President, George Field; Vice-President, Jackie Watson; Secretary, Ann Page Violette; Treasurer, Charles Powell.

The exhilarating omen of approaching the academic milestone of becoming seniors ourselves was the event of presenting the Senior Class with the annual Junior-Senior Prom. With the graduation of the Senior Class of '44 came the realization that next year we would be the leaders of the school.

It was a proud and happy group that entered school in September 1944. Yes, proud and happy in one sense, but also sad and a bit regretful, for our days at Hampton High School were numbered. Soon we would be leaving* to take our places in this busy, rapidly changing world.

After a successful season of football, we turned to basketball, each of which we enjoyed thoroughly. Just before leaving for our well-earned Christmas holidays, orders for our class rings were taken.

Once again we made a selection of officers and elected the following: President, Emmett Bradley; Vice-President, Dorothy Shackelford; Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Liv Tall.

As senior invitations were ordered, pictures taken, and caps and gowns fitted, we fully realized that our graduation day was drawing near.

Now that day is here and within each heart there is a feeling of achievement, of having attained our goal, with our diplomas in our proud possession, and all the things past, present and future which they symbolize, tokens of our first success. We look back over the past four years and feel that we have come a long way in order to be a part of this graduating class. It has been a pleasant way and we regret that we must travel different roads. At this parting of the ways, the anticipation of what the future will bring is foremost in our minds. What will our "Great Adventure" be like? It lies within each heart to answer. With the tremendous tasks of the post war world facing us, we, the country's future leaders, feel that Hampton High School has equipped us with the fundamentals to help make our mission a success.

Dorothy Shackelford,
Class Historian

CLASS PROPHECY

Gaze deep into the crystal ball, my friends, gaze deep, and concentrate, and I will take you into the future to warn and foretell of events to come.

Years are spinning past now—1950—1960—'63—'64, and yes, we're stopping in the year of 1965.

The picture before me is clearing now and I can see it is a fine spring afternoon. The picture has become so completely clear that I can see it is low tide in East Hampton, for Jack and Jackie and all the little "Nigger Heads" are sweeping mud from their front porch

As the scene changes, we approach the East Hampton bridge to see Eldred Chappell, Bobby Clair, Henry Clark, and Richard Dooley, the newly appointed street cleaners, doing their humble duty. Sitting on the rail, passing the time of day and fishing, is Raymond Hackney. And down in the creek, on his yacht, is Bobby Tysinger with his valet, James Downs.

As the scene of downtown Hampton comes into view, I see we have a new store, "Eppie and Company". The proprietors are none other than James Wallace and his wife, the former Miss Shirley Sue Smith.

And just across the street I see a huge, but lovely, neon sign blinking "Mims' Carolina Popcorn—Only a Dime."

Down the street a street car approaches (the CRT finally bought a new one), the operator being none other than Fred Ashwell. Among the passengers endangering their lives are Alice Isakson, Louise Geyer, Betty Selby and Imogene Garland. I see that the W. W. M. (We Want A Man) Society is canvassing again.

And now the mystic ball brings before me a very distinguished gentleman, Mr. Garrett Leonard, the newly elected Mayor of Fox Hill.

Crossing the street is "Judge" Perry heading for court—(not as a judge—I leave the rest to you.)

And that sign on the billboard—What is it?—Oh, yes. "B. J. Ratliffe vs. Cynthia Patrick in the final match for the Women's Wrestling Championship of Bull Island."

And at the Rex Theatre, of which Milton Hayes is manager, I see that Carter (The Thrill) Harrison and Margaret Reuter are starring in "Kiss Me Again."

The picture becomes cloudy and then clears again revealing Mr. Floyd Higgins and his wife, the former Miss Rosemary Dorsey, on their way to their estate on Crab Factory Boulevard.

The scene before me changes again and I see Robert Lemuel Argo is in town singing his theme song "Don't Step On My Shoes, Daddy, I Just Got a New Shoe Shine." No wonder the women are swooning.

Now we see an ultra-modern bakery—"The Harrell and Tignor Bake Shop" by name. I see Evelyn has "Tig" in the apron again.

We now catch a glimpse of a huge super market. Why, it's the Matt Gardner establishment where large five cent ice cream cones can be bought for only a dime—a fine businessman, that Matt. Working in the store as clerks are Montague Marshall, Russell Mason, and Thomas Parks.

And now I see we have a little excitement—An accident has occurred.

Raymond Adcock's brat, I mean child, and Emmett Bradley's son just had a collision on their trieyeles, but everything is now well under control, for the forceful officer of the law, Mugler Gibson, is restoring order with the aid of special detective, Pelham Smith, alias "Snoopy".

The commotion ceases and in the crystal we see, cruising through town in his convertible, Dewey Gillespie Maston and Mrs. Shirley H. Maston. Mr. Maston, the All-American at William and Mary, has been Athletic Director of Notre Dame for a number of years.

A funeral is passing and I see that Robert Dutton Funeral Home has charge. Clouds pass through the crystal ball, then whisk away and I see that where the parking lot was there now appears a huge gymnasium—Paul Manley Tysinger's Get Strong Quick (like me) Courses predominate here. Working out at the gym are Bill Worker, George Gage, Jack Kelpin, and Sam Houser.

And here coming down the street are those wizards of the NACA, the two geniuses who discovered a new way to prove that a circle isn't square, Mr. Paul Burbank and Mr. William Markward Balson.

The picture has changed again and, believe it or not, "Follies of 1965" with Gloria Anderson, Shirley Clements, Betty Batts, Ruth (Peroxide) Anderson, and Thelma Cole, is starring Elsie Love Bentley. This popular show is produced by the famous William Andrew Hopkins Show Company and is backed by the financier, Eugene Maston, who made his money by selling fruit cake for a dime per slice.

And also in town is the champion weight lifter, Billy "Shack" Lee and his manager, Ray Moore.

The headlines of the society page of the "Morning Mistake" must not be ignored for they are "Irene Creasy and Jerald Ford (Sweet Shoppe Millionaire) Wed in Carolina." The marriage was solemnized by Justice of the Peace, Alvin Narron. The bride wore a white gown made from a new plastic material invented by Jack Dowling and Jim Short.

And now we move to Phoebus where we find Betty Englebert, Catherine Nealon, and Virginia Duke practicing for the finals in the National Women's Pool Tournament.

We jump again and now I see our Old Alma Mater and on the office door I see—no, it can't be—M. M. Sherman, Jr., Principal. Why, it's our old "Buddy" of '45! Serving on the faculty are Catherine Moorefield, girls' gym instructor, and Ruth Ann Johnson, math instructor. Also, as janitor, we have Herbert Sullivan. Coming down the hall is Richard Storey, books in arm, still trying to pass algebra.

And here comes Billy (Salt Water) Knight with his wife, the former Emma Mason Sparrow, heading for Buckroe Beach.

And now, my friends, the crystal ball is becoming hazy and the figures are blurring before me. We are spinning back to the present and our normal lives.

I have foretold and warned you of events to come. Heed them if you wish, disregard them if you dare—The voice of the future has spoken.

Garland Rollins,

Class Prophet of 1945

CLASS POEM 1945

Forty-five to us will always be dear,
We have reached our long sought goal.
In history 't will be the Star-Spangled Year
As in the school of life we enroll.

The days of jeeps, tanks, and planes that fly
And war in every nation,
Find our graduates of Hampton High
Each trained to fill his station.

So this great adventure we've begun
Can mean happiness, not always fame;
But we shall strive 'til all work is done
And our loyalty forever proclaim.

Now on that strong foundation we've laid
To do our part on land and sea;
With success our efforts will be repaid
In this great year of Victory.

The Audiographic Staff was organized in the fall of 1939 with members selected from the Industrial Electricity course. This staff has been active in providing for the school a group of trained operators for the motion picture equipment, for visual aids, and for amplifying equipment used in connection with the school's program.

A weekly meeting is scheduled for the Audiographic Staff in order that the members might discuss topics which qualify them to set up, operate, and care for the school's light projecting and sound amplifying equipment in a way that will assure its most satisfactory operation.

For the past year, the Audiographic Staff has provided services which have made possible the use of motion pictures for many outside groups in addition to providing all of the necessary services for Hampton High School.

GO BACK

Go Back! Go Back!
 Go Back to the woods!
 You haven't! You haven't!
 You haven't got the goods,
 You haven't got the rhythm,
 You haven't got the jazz
 You haven't got the team
 That Hampton has!

WE CAN TRUCK

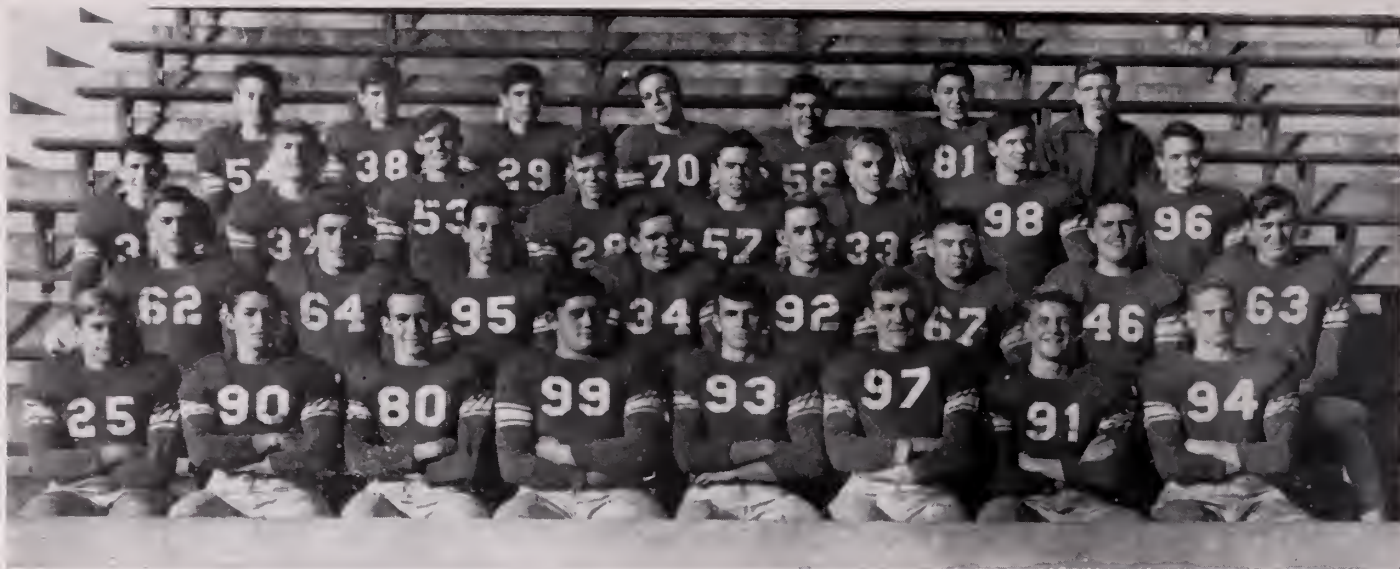

We can truck and Susie-Q,
 but we'll leave the football
 up to you.
 So come on, boys, mow 'em down
 Get that ball and really go to town.

ALMA MATER

Here's to Hampton High School
 Here's to H. H. S.
 Here's to our football team.
 Is it fine? Oh yes, oh yes, oh yes,
 Victorions or defeated,
 We will always fight—
 Our Alma Mater and our old Red and White.

Chorus

Red and White! Red and White!
 We will fight with all our might
 As old Hampton goes fighting along.
 Blue and Gold! Blue and Gold!
 You will never, never hold
 As old Hampton goes fighting along.
 For it's Ray! Ray! Ray!
 Wave your colors gay.
 Come on, put pep into your song,
 For where 'ere you go
 You will always know
 That old Hampton goes fighting along.

HAMPTON 31 BENEDICTINE 0

The Crabbers opened their season with a 31-0 victory over the Benedictine Preppers of Richmond. Billy Knight and Jimmy Wallace each scored twice, while Dewey Maston scored once. Maston hit the center of the line for the extra point.

HAMPTON 13 MAURY 0

Before an unusually large crowd of 6,000 the Crabbers defeated the Commodores 13 to 0. Dewey Maston scored the two touchdowns, one on a 52 yard run and one on an 8 yard run. Bruce Jones was the main cog of the Commodores' defense.

HAMPTON 28 THOMAS JEFFERSON 6

In the first home game of the season, the Crabbers crushed the Capital City boys 28 to 6. Little Billy Knight, speedy back, accounted for 3 of the 4 touchdowns, while Rollins scored the other. Charles Wingfield made two conversions out of four chances. James Miller blocked a punt to account for the other 2 points. Andrews, fullback, scored the lone Richmond tally.

HAMPTON 0 DANVILLE 6

After winning three straight games, the Crabbers were defeated 6 to 0 by George Washington of Danville. Buddy Rosser, Billy Balson, and Billy Knight received injuries in this game which hindered them the rest of the season. Flora and Bradner were the main cogs for the Danville team, while Leonard proved good on the offensive for the Crabbers. Lee played very well on the defensive for the Crabbers.

HAMPTON 0 GRANBY 13

It was a fighting band of Crabbers that bowed to the Granby High "Blue Comets" 13 to 0. Two quick thrusts into Hampton territory within the last few minutes gave Granby their victory. Bobby Carroll and Hunter Tignor, subs of Buddy Rosser and Billy Balson, proved to be good on the defensive. Jack Hill, center, played with a bruised knee. Harrison and Rienarth were best for the visitors.

HAMPTON 0 WOODROW WILSON 12

Without the services of All-Southern quarterback Dewey Maston and blocking back Jack Hardy, the Crabbers suffered their third defeat of the season. Fleming and Mounie did the scoring for the Presidents. The Crabbers made several threats in the last half but failed to score.

HAMPTON 40 ELIZABETH CITY 6

The Crabbers, after a losing streak, defeated the North Carolina lads 40 to 6. Cat Leonard set up the scoring on a 15 yard run. The most brilliant run of the game came when reserve back Joe Mark scampered from the midfield stripe to pay dirt. Others scoring were Dewey Maston, with two scores, Gene Maston, Harvey Charles, with one tally each. Hunter Tignor played a "bang-up" game for the hosts.

HAMPTON 0 ROCKY MOUNT 14

Scoring in the second and fourth quarters, the Rocky Mount Blackbirds defeated the Crabbers 14 to 0. With Billy Knight carrying the ball and Dewey Maston passing to Buddy Rosser, the Crabbers went deep into the Blackbird territory. Jimmy Landis intercepted a pass and ran 55 yards for the first score while Jack Allsbrook plunged over from the one yard line for the second score. George Gage and Buddy Rosser played very well on defensive, throwing the Blackbirds for many losses.

HAMPTON 26 LYNCHBURG 6

The Crabbers traveled to Lynchburg Thanksgiving day to hand the Hilltoppers a 26 to 6 defeat. The toe of Co-Captain George Gage kept the Lynchburgers in their territory all the time. Dewey Maston scored twice while Knight and Wallace each scored once. Wingfield converted twice. McLane, on a 74 yard kickoff run, scored the Lynchburg lads' lone tally, on the last play of the game.

BASKETBALL

Although graduation hit them rather hard, the Hampton High School Basketball team was fairly successful this year. The team had very little experience since the varsity was composed mostly of last year's junior varsity. Dewey Maston, the only returning letterman, was captain. The Crabbers won seven games and lost six.
